TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Weimar. This house was built in 1706 and presented by Duke Charles Augustus to Goethe. Here he lived for 50 years until his death March 22nd 1832. The room in which he died is still left in the same condition and arrangement. The building contains many objects of interest connected with the poet and other celebrated men who used to visit him there.
